Great Lakes Airlines suspends scheduled flight operations effective March 26, 2018

Effective midnight 12:00am Mountain Time on Monday, March 26, 2018, Great Lakes Airlines suspended scheduled flight operations as an air carrier. We will however continue to support flights operated by our code-share partner airline, Aerodynamics Inc (ADI) on their routes between Denver, CO and Pierre and Watertown, SD.

For those customers who are holding unused tickets, please contact your original booking source as indicated on your flight itinerary & ticket receipt for a refund. If the ticket was booked directly with Great Lakes Airlines, please call 1-800-554-5111.

We apologize for any inconvenience and appreciate your patience while we work to resolve this matter.

Customers may call Great Lakes reservations at 800-554-5111 for updated information
